Mr. John N. McMahon
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. McMahon:

On behalf of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, I am writing to invite you to speak to our members on a mutually convenient date. The Council is the largest foreign policy organization in the United States, with approximately 16,000 members. I am enclosing printed materials providing more details about our work.

We would like you to speak to our Council Benefactors at a private dinner-lecture meeting. Council Benefactors contribute more than the minimum in annual membership dues. I think you would find them generally well informed in the foreign affairs field.

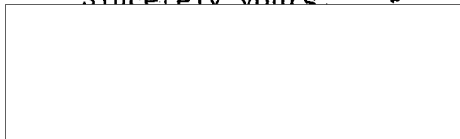

We would also like you to address our Chicago Committee at a private, off-the-record luncheon. Chicago Committee members are business, financial, academic, and other professional leaders in this area.

We have considerable flexibility concerning a date for your visit. Our program year runs from September through June. We could, of course, cover your travel expenses (economy airfare) and provide overnight accommodations. If you have any questions, please contact [redacted]

[redacted] of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations at the above phone number and address.

Thank you for your consideration of this invitation. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours
